

Intentional Mentoring Assessment

❖ Follows the Lordship of Christ

Name:

Date:

Christ is Master of our lives, having complete control of mind, will, emotions, and affections. We acknowledge Christ as Master in our lives and our lifestyles reflect this truth. Acts 2:36; Romans 10:9-10; 12:1-2.

Surrenders one's talents, gifts and resources to the Kingdom of God

1

2

3

4

5

I am not sure how to surrender.

I am surrendered in some areas of my life.

I have completely surrendered my talents, gifts and resources to God.

My thoughts:

Lives a life of faith

1

2

3

4

5

I don't understand how to live a life by faith.

I am afraid to act in faith.

I seek to live daily by expanding my faith.

My thoughts:

Committed to a life of purity

1

2

3

4

5

I struggle with the area of purity – it is difficult to yield.

I have made some progress in yielding in the area of purity.

God has consistent control of my life in the area of purity.

My thoughts:

Stewards resources well

1

2

3

4

5

I struggle to wisely steward financial resources.

I am working on a plan to achieve wise financial stewardship.

I wisely steward the financial resources that God has given me.

My thoughts:

On the basis of my answers to the above questions, I would like to grow in how I yield to the Lordship of Christ in the following areas: