

Intentional Mentoring Assessment

❖ Loves People

Name:

Date:

Our devotion to God finds its outward expression in loving others as God loves us. We are determined to confront injustice and abuse wherever they are met, while maintaining the dignity of life and showing kindness to those God brings into our lives. We are committed to community with one another. Matthew 22:36-40; John 13:34-35; 1John 4:10-21.

Understands our God-given intrinsic value

1

2

3

4

5

I'm not sure of who I am in Christ.

I know how God sees me but I have a hard time believing it.

How God sees me affects my life and character.

My thoughts:

Has compassion for the hurting, e.g., poor, needy, grieving

1

2

3

4

5

I have difficulty stepping out of my comfort zone.

I see the needs of others but only occasionally seek to meet them.

I am regularly involved in service to those who are in need.

My thoughts:

Hates injustice and abuse

1

2

3

4

5

Injustice doesn't concern me.

I notice injustice and abuse but don't know what to do about it.

I regularly seek to right injustice and abuse.

My thoughts:

Seeker of reconciliation

1

2

3

4

5

I don't understand the need for reconciliation.

I understand the need but struggle to seek reconciliation with others.

I immediately seek reconciliation with those I have wronged or who have wronged me.

My thoughts:

Exercises appropriateness in relationships

1	2	3	4	5
I do not set healthy boundaries.		Sometimes the boundaries I set are appropriate.		I consistently set appropriate boundaries.
My thoughts:

Seek to establish genuine and meaningful relationships with others

1	2	3	4	5
I have few or no close relationships in my group or life.		I have some relationships that are meaningful.		I have strong relationships in my group and my life.
My thoughts:

Commitment to Christian community

1	2	3	4	5
I sporadically attend worship services.		I attend services regularly but I am not a member.		I am a committed member who regularly attends services.
My thoughts:

Encourager of others

1	2	3	4	5
I find it difficult to be encouraging to others.		I easily encourage my friends but have a harder time encouraging other people.		I encourage both my friends and those I don't know well.
My thoughts:

On the basis of my answers to the above questions, I would like to grow in my love for people in the following areas: